Giving the Gift of Love
With Nurse Susy Horta

Susy Horta is an ICU nurse from Columbia. Growing up in a missionary family, Susy always wanted to go serve where there was the most need—that's how she ended up volunteering in West Africa with Mercy Ships.

Having just celebrated her fourth year onboard, Susy shares with us some of the gifts she has been able to give patients over the years, as well as some gifts her patients have given her... or tried to! Listen in to hear about one gift that Susy just couldn't accept!
